

ACLS

1. Discussion re the updated ARC guidelines : <http://www.resus.org.au/>
 - a. What has changed with BLS
 - b. What has changed with ALS
 - c. What has changed with Paediatric resus
 - d. What has changed with Neonatal resus

2. ACLS guidelines “Extra bits” – special interventions in cardiac arrest
http://journals.lww.com/em-news/Fulltext/2011/09000/InFocus_ACLS_Guidelines_Special_Interventions_in.7.aspx

Asthma, Anaphylaxis, Pregnancy, Obesity, PE, Electrolytes

3. A 42yo lady is brought to your emergency after an out of hospital arrest. CPR was commenced within 10minutes of collapse, and has been going for 40minutes with no ROSC. She is intubated/ventilated with PEA after multiple doses of Adrenaline.
 - a. Outline your initial approach to managing this patient
 - b. What are the important differential diagnoses?
 - c. How do you approach ceasing CPR in this patient?

<http://lifeinthefastlane.com/education/ccp/cessation-of-cpr/>

<http://lifeinthefastlane.com/education/ccp/pulseless-electrical-activity-pea/>

Cardiac arrest literature summaries:

<http://lifeinthefastlane.com/education/ccp/cardiac-arrest-literature-summaries/>

